

Defining Your Mode of Delivery and Setting Expectations for Students

Synchronous Course	Hybrid Course	Asynchronous Course
Student Scenario: I am going to watch the recording of the lecture and will email you with any questions I might have later on.	Student Scenario: It wasn't discussed in class so I didn't know it was going to be on the exam.	Student Scenario: I learn better when the lectures are "live" and I can ask questions.
Issue(s):	Issue(s):	Issue(s):
Expectation:	Expectation:	Expectation:

Example mode of delivery statement: This fully online course is delivered synchronously; it is the expectation that students attend virtual class sessions having completed the assigned work for each week.

Your mode of delivery statement: