

A close-up photograph of several plumeria flowers in various stages of bloom. The flowers are a vibrant yellow-orange color with pinkish-red tips on the petals. They are clustered on a dark brown stem. Large, glossy green leaves with prominent veins surround the flowers, some showing signs of being wet with water droplets. The background is dark and out of focus.

KOKUA - Kahi O Ka Ulu Ana

“The Place of Growing”

Founded in 1966

Eligibility for Services

- Qualified UH Mānoa students
- Permanent documented disabilities
- Voluntary disclosure of disability status to KOKUA

CONFIDENTIALITY

- Disability information cannot be shared without a student's express permission.
- KOKUA shares only general information.
- Faculty/Staff cannot ask a student for more detailed information.

Disability Types

- Health-related disabilities
- Mobility-related disabilities
- Hearing-related disabilities
- Visual disabilities
- Learning disabilities

Most Common Services

- Priority registration
- Faculty Liaison
- Exam Accommodations
- Notetaking
- Alternate Format Production
- Disability Access Counseling

Breakout Activity

How would you respond?

KOKUA

QLCSS 013

Monday - Friday

7:45 AM – 4:30 PM

808-956-7511

Questions?

