Faculty Travel

The faculty travel fund supports travel by full-time faculty and staff members to professional conferences for the purpose of presenting results of research and/or scholarship when it can be demonstrated that such activities could potentially result in additional extramural funding.

Excellence in Research Awards

Three categories: one each at the Assistant, Associate and Full Professor/Researcher levels, however, the URC has the option of changing the distribution. Also, not all awards have to be made in a given year.

Note: Awards consist of an appropriate cash sum plus a suitably engraved Board of Regent's Medal.

RCUH Student Excellence in Research Awards

Three categories: one for the bachelor's level, one for the master's level, and one for the doctoral level. Each award consists of a certificate and $500.

Eligibility: Any full-time student currently working towards a bachelor, masters or doctorate degree is eligible for nomination.
